MEDIA CREDENTIALING CRITERIA

The University of Missouri's decision to issue credentials to a media outlet for the purposes of covering a Mizzou Athletics event is determined by a variety of factors. They include the following:

- Space availability;
- Distribution/size of outlet: free, subscription, sale on newsstands, website traffic, etc.;
- Length of existence of the publication, amount of original copy generated, number of full-time employees of the publication and the journalistic experience of the reporter(s);
- Radio or TV station program format and audience size;
- Amount of coverage given to Mizzou through the season;
- Intention/ability to cover all 20 sports at Mizzou;
- Attendance at Mizzou media sessions, including Olympic sport opportunities;
- Professionalism, which includes but is not limited to conduct at games, press conferences, practices, on social media, etc.;
- Compliance with SEC media policy.

The University of Missouri has the right to deny or revoke credentials under its own discretion.

CREDENTIAL REQUEST PROCEDURE

In order to follow health and safety guidelines from the COVID-19 pandemic, space will be limited for credentialed members of the media at Audrey J. Walton Soccer Stadium.

Mizzou Athletics will only offer single-game credentials to affiliated media at home soccer games. Media wishing to apply for a single-game credential should email Nate Lowery, of the Mizzou Athletics Strategic Communications office, with all members from the outlet requesting credentials, by end of day Tuesday prior to the contest. Members of the media should allow 48 hours to receive notice of the approval or denial of their credential application.

INTERVIEW POLICIES

All interviews with University of Missouri student-athletes or staff members must be arranged through the Athletics Communications office. Media are asked to never contact a player or coach directly.

Due to health and safety guidelines because of the COVID-19 pandemic, in-person interviews will not be allowed during the season. All interviews will be conducted over phone or Zoom.

In general, athlete and staff interviews are conducted prior to or after practices. All pre-contest interviews must be made at least 24 hours in advance through the Communications office. Interviews will be scheduled when student-athlete and staff schedules allow.

Pre-match interviews will not be allowed on gamedays. Post-match interviews will be conducted over Zoom at a predetermined time, which will be communicated to the media alongside the access link.

Playing fields, team locker rooms and other team quarters are private team areas. Media members are not permitted in these areas.

PHOTOS/LOGOS/VIDEO REQUESTS

Media members wishing to obtain photos and logos related to Mizzou Athletics should contact the Athletics Communications contact for the sport (see staff directory for sport assignments). Special photo galleries for media access are available following many events.

DR. MUN Y. CHOI

PRESIDENT & CHANCELLOR
UNIVERSITY OF MISSOURI
Fourth Year
Illinois, 1987

Mun Y. Choi is the 24th president of the University of Missouri System and as of July 29, 2020, he was appointed as chancellor of the University of Missouri. As president, Dr. Choi serves as the chief executive and academic officer of the UM System, a land-grant institution that provides centralized administration for four universities, a health care system, and extension program, and 10 research and technology parks. Dr. Choi oversees all academic, public, business, financial and related affairs of the UM System under the policies and general supervision of the University of Missouri Board of Curators.

As a product of and passionate champion for public higher education, Dr. Choi advocates tirelessly on behalf of the four universities of the UM System with state and national business, political and civic leaders to achieve excellence. In partnership with the board and university leadership, Dr. Choi introduced a new collective vision for the UM System in September 2018: to advance the opportunities for success and well-being in Missouri, the nation and the world through transformative teaching, research, innovation, engagement and inclusion.

To fulfill this vision, Dr. Choi announced the Missouri Compacts for Achieving Excellence, a plan that includes $260 million in strategic investments. The Missouri Compacts are a promise to achieve excellence through student success; research and creative works; engagement and outreach; inclusive excellence; and planning, operations and stewardship to best serve our students and Missourians. The defining project of Dr. Choi's vision for the UM System is the Next Generation Precision Health Initiative, a statewide project to bring together and amplify the resources of the entire university system with the goal of creating personalized treatments for society's toughest diseases.

Dr. Choi's leadership has been instrumental in moving the University of Missouri System forward and strengthening the collaboration between the four universities in the system. Since he took office, the university has seen major changes, including the reversal of significant student enrollment declines at the flagship campus, administrative and budget transformations that support a more efficient and collaborative environment and the restoration of public funding through a dramatically improved relationship with the Missouri legislature. Most importantly, Dr. Choi is widely recognized to have regained the trust of the university community, alumni, legislators, and Missourians by changing the attitude of the entire state towards higher education.

Before serving as the UM System president, Dr. Choi's 25-year career in higher education included serving as assistant and associate professor at the University of Illinois at Chicago (1994-2000), department head of mechanical engineering and mechanics at Drexel University (2000-2008), then dean of engineering at the University of Connecticut (UConn) (2008-2012). Later, he took on the role of provost and executive vice president at UConn (2012-2017).

President Choi and his wife, Suzanne, have three children and live in Columbia, Missouri.

FACULTY ATHLETICS REPRESENTATIVE
20th Year
Wisconsin, 1991

Dr. Pam Bruzina was appointed Faculty Athletics Representative in May, 2017, for a five-year term. Previously, Dr. Bruzina served as an executive member of the Intercollegiate Athletics Committee (IAC) and was the IAC Compliance Subcommittee Chair and the Student-Athlete Welfare Subcommittee Chair. Her dedication to the welfare of our student-athletes was evident during her time on the IAC.

Dr. Bruzina has served in the Department of Nutrition and Exercise Phisiology since 2000. She has been an Associate Professor of Nutritional Sciences at MU since 2006, and has served as the department's Director of Graduate Studies, Nutritional Sciences, since 2010.

Dr. Bruzina's lab investigates the interactive effects of nutrition and physical activity on bone health. In particular, Dr. Bruzina's lab is studying the effects of energy balance on bone turnover during weight loss and weight maintenance in overweight individuals. In addition, Dr. Bruzina is studying the efficacy of exercise-based interventions to increase bone mineral density in osteopenic males.

She was a student-athlete at the University of Wisconsin, competing in track and cross country. She earned a bachelor's degree, with, distinction, in molecular biology, which provides her with firsthand knowledge of the demands placed on student-athletes.

JIM STERK

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS
Fourth Year
Western Washington, 80

Jim Sterk was named Mizzou's 20th Director of Athletics on Aug., 9, 2016, following highly successful tenures leading programs at San Diego State, Washington State and Portland State. His Win It Right vision for Mizzou Athletics is built upon the core values of Respect, Integrity, Gratitude, Humility and Together, and his first four years have produced unprecedented academic and athletic achievements for the Tigers:

2019-20 Highlights:

• Mizzou student-athletes set grade-point average records for both the Fall 2019 (3.15) and Spring 2020 (3.44) semesters with the Spring mark ranking as a school-record for any one term. Mizzou also set new standards for Dean's List honorees (207) and 4.0s (90) during the spring semester.

• Five Mizzou teams led the Southeastern Conference in 2019 Graduation Success Rate (GSR) scores—Baseball (95), Men's Golf (100), Women's Golf (100), Women's Swimming & Diving (100) and Women's Tennis (100).

• MU Women's Basketball, Women's Tennis and Women's Cross Country received 2018-19 NCAA Public Recognition Awards for their Academic Progress Rates (APR), as 16 of Mizzou's 18 programs in which APR is tracked either equaled or improved their multi-year score year over year.

• Eight Mizzou squads were ranked at one point during their respective season and five ended their year ranked among the nation's Top 25 in Men's Swimming & Diving (No. 7), Women's Gymnastics (No. 14), Women's Swimming & Diving (No. 20), Softball (No. 15/No. 25) and Wrestling (No. 23).

• Mizzou Wrestling claimed its ninth-straight conference tournament title and eighth-straight MAC Tournament championship. MU also won the MAC regular-season crown for the seventh time in eight years.

• Mizzou Football moved into the $98M South End Zone Facility ahead of the 2019 season.

• Eliah Drinkwitz was introduced as Mizzou's 33rd Head Football Coach on Dec. 10, 2019, and then-Interim Head Volleyball Coach Josh Taylor had the interim tag removed, Nov. 14, 2019.

2018-19 Highlights:

• Mizzou produced a school-record tying GSR score of 91 for the second-straight year; the SEC's third-best mark behind Vanderbilt (97) and South Carolina (94), and the 12th-straight year it equaled or improved its institutional GSR. MU produced SEC-leading marks of 100 in Baseball, Women's Basketball, Women's Golf, Women's Tennis and Soccer.

• MU Women's Basketball and Women's Tennis garnered 2017-18 NCAA Public Recognition APR Awards.

• After finishing a school-record 33rd in the Learfield IMG Directors' Cup standings in each of Sterk's first two years, Mizzou placed 51st in 2018-19, a five-place improvement over its average finish of 56th in the award's first 25 years; 15 of 20 programs were represented in the postseason either as teams or individuals.

• Mizzou Football, which played in back-to-back bowl games for the first time since the 2013 and 2014 seasons, was one of six MU programs to finish among the nation's Top 25 as it was 23rd in the final College Football Playoff ranking to join Wrestling (sixth-place, NCAAs), Men's Swimming & Diving (11th-place, NCAAs), Women's Gymnastics (17th), Women's Swimming & Diving (23rd, NCAAs) and Volleyball (23rd). Mizzou Wrestling also swept the MAC regular-season and tournament titles for the second-straight year.

• Ground was broken in March 2018 on the largest campus construction project in school history, Mizzou Football's new den, the $98M South End Zone Facility.

• The Tiger Scholarship Fund (TSF) saw a $17M increase over the previous year's productivity en route to its third-highest year ever in total cash and pledges of $40.7M, which included a second-straight record-setting year in student-athlete scholarship support of $11.4M. It marked the first time in the same year that TSF produced top three marks for annual fund dollars raised (No. 1), cash donations (No. 3) and productivity (No. 3).

• After serving as interim head coach for the 2018-19 season, Andrew Grevers was named Head Coach of the Tigers' Men's and Women's Swimming & Diving programs, May 24, 2019.

2017-18 Highlights:

• In the 2017 Federal Graduation Rates survey, Mizzou ranked second in the SEC at 72 percent to match the highest mark in program history (2014-15).

• MU registered a school-record GSR score of 91 to rank third in the SEC behind Vanderbilt (96) and South Carolina (93), and produced SEC-leading marks in Baseball (97), Women's Basketball (100), Women's Golf (100), Women's Gymnastics (100), Women's Tennis (100) and Volleyball (100).

• Mizzou equaled best-ever Learfield Directors' Cup finish, as it totaled 660.75 points to place 33rd for the second-straight year. A record 17 of the Tigers' 20 programs were represented in the postseason with a school-record 15 scoring Directors' Cup points.

• Mizzou captured two conference titles (Mizzou Wrestling won the MAC regular-season and tournament crowns) and 11 teams ranked in the nation's Top 25 at some point during the year.

• The Tigers produced Top 25 2017-18 NCAA Championship finishes in Wrestling (sixth), Women's Indoor Track & Field (ninth), Women's Outdoor Track & Field (11th), Women's Swimming & Diving (15th), Volleyball (Sweet 16) and Men's Swimming & Diving (23rd). It also marked the first time since 1981-82 that Mizzou Football played in a bowl game and both Tiger Basketball teams reached the NCAA Tournament in the same academic year.

• Karissa Schweizer (3,000m and 5,000m at the NCAA Indoor Championships; 5,000m at NCAA Outdoor Championships) won three NCAA individual titles as a senior to cap her fabulous collegiate career with six national championships.

• A new era in Mizzou Softball began with the introduction of Larissa Anderson as the 10th head coach to lead the tradition-rich Tiger program on May 26, 2018.

• Mizzou Arena was sold-out on a season ticket basis during Cuonzo Martin's first year on the Tigers' sideline, and MU responded with its first NCAA Tournament appearance since 2012-13.

2016-17 Highlights:

• Four Mizzou teams recorded perfect APR marks of 1,000—Women's Golf, Women's Tennis, Soccer and Volleyball, and earned NCAA Public Recognition Awards for their classroom performances.

• Fueled by Top 16 NCAA Championship finishes in Wrestling (fifth), Women's Indoor Track & Field (eighth), Men's Swimming & Diving (ninth), Women's Swimming & Diving (13th), Women's Cross Country (16th) and Volleyball (Sweet 16), Mizzou ranked a program-best 33rd in the 2016-17 Learfield Directors' Cup standings with a school-record 662.75 points. The Tigers had not finished better than 36th prior to 2016-17.

• Sixteen Mizzou teams were represented in postseason play, two won conference titles (Volleyball and Wrestling) and 10 ranked among the nation's Top 25 at season's end. In addition, two Tigers combined to win four NCAA individual titles as wrestler J'den Cox won his third national title and Schweizer became just the fourth runner in NCAA history to win the women's distance triple crown (cross country, indoor 5,000m and outdoor 5,000m national titles), and first since 2008.

• The generosity of more than 7,000 donors allowed the Tiger Scholarship Fund (TSF) to raise a school-record $50.4 million during the 2016-17 fiscal year, shattering the previous record by more than $4.7 million. TSF's record-breaking total, which included new pledges and cash gifts, was aided by a school-record 11 gifts of $1 million or more.

Sterk joined the Mizzou family from San Diego State, where he enjoyed a highly-successful six-year tenure that included arguably the most successful five-year run in Aztec history with 32 team conference championships from 2011-12 thru 2015-16, including a Mountain West Conference-leading 28 titles in that span, and the nation's fourth-highest combined winning percentage in football and men's basketball. In addition, SDSU was one of only four schools nationally to have appeared in six-consecutive NCAA Men's Basketball Tournaments and have its football team play in five-straight bowl games over that stretch.

"Jim elevated SDSU to a respectable level both athletically and academically," said Marshall Faulk, a member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame and former St. Louis Ram and SDSU Aztec. "His leadership was instrumental in the rise of SDSU success. How we cared for our student-athletes was his No. 1 concern. While I'm sad to see him go, I am equally happy for Jim and his family, and I told him he is going to love the people of Missouri. Mizzou, you hired a man with impeccable integrity."

Selected as a 2015-16 Under Armour Athletic Director of the Year by NACDA, Sterk was appointed to the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Committee as the Mountain West Conference's representative, however, he had to relinquish that prestigious position when he left for Mizzou.

Sterk went to SDSU from Washington State, where he served as athletics director from 2000-10. Prior to his hiring at WSU, he was athletics director at Portland State from 1995 to 2000, where he led the Vikings transition from NCAA Division II to the Division I level.

The NCAA recognized WSU and Sterk in 2006 as the Division IA Athletic Directors' "Program of Excellence." He oversaw a period of unparalleled success at WSU with historic academic and athletic accomplishments during his time in Pullman.

In his last three years at WSU, 13 Cougar teams competed in NCAA Tournaments, including back-to-back trips by the Men's Basketball team (2007 and 2008), while Women's Rowing earned five NCAA bids, including a fourth-place finish in 2006, the highest finish ever by a WSU women's team in NCAA competition.

A 1980 graduate of Western Washington University, Sterk earned four letters for the Vikings in football and one in basketball. He was credited with a school-record 164 tackles during the 1977 season, garnering first-team NAIA District I all-star accolades. He was named team captain and MVP, helping the Vikings to the district championship game. In 2010, Sterk was inducted into Western Washington's Athletics Hall of Fame.

He received his master's degree in sports administration from Ohio University. In addition to SDSU, Washington State and Portland State, he has served in athletic administrative positions at North Carolina, Maine, Seattle Pacific and Tulane.

BRYAN BLITZ

HEAD COACH
25TH SEASON
TULSA, 1987

The only head coach to patrol the sidelines for Mizzou Soccer, Bryan Blitz enters his 25th season at the helm of the Tigers in 2020. The program's founding head coach, Blitz owns a 248-211-36 record since Mizzou began play in 1996, and a 293-255-44 record in 29 seasons as a collegiate head coach.

His 293 career wins ranks him 31st nationally among active head coaches, while his 248 wins at Mizzou are third among SEC head coaches at their current institutions.

Building the program from scratch, Blitz has guided the Tigers to seven NCAA Tournament appearances, making the second round four times. Blitz led the fledgling Mizzou program to a postseason appearance in the program's fourth season – hosting Marquette in a quadruple overtime game in 1999.

Blitz' leadership transitioned Mizzou from the Big 12 to SEC in 2012 – raising the success of the program. The Tigers have qualified for the SEC Tournament in all but one season as conference members, while also never losing an SEC opener.

For his outstanding work, Blitz has earned Coach of the Year honors three times in his career. He was named the SEC Coach of the Year in 2015, while also earning the honor twice in the Big 12 (2007, 2009).

Mizzou athletes have collected 61 all-conference honors under his tutelage. Former player Nikki Thole (1997-2000) stands as the program's only All-American, earning the honor from the NSCAA in 1999 – while also being named a freshman All-American in 1997. Mizzou individuals have also collected 22 all-region honors.

Three athletes have earned postseason conference honors in Blitz' career: Alysha Bonnick was named the Big 12 Newcomer of the Year in 2007, Crystal Wagner the Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year in 2009, and Luebbert was named the 2016 SEC Freshman of the Year.

Under his leadership, Mizzou has matched its on-field success in the classroom. Both Allison Hu (2012) and Luebbert (2019) have been named the SEC Scholar-Athlete of the Year.

In 2019, the Tigers opened the season 5-0 for the first time since 2012, and were just two wins shy of matching the best start in program history. Sarah Luebbert was named first-team All-SEC in addition to being honored as the Scholar-Athlete of the Year. She added second-team All-Southeast Region honors in a dominant senior campaign. Julissa Cisneros scored 11 goals in her sophomore season – a mark that stands tied for ninth on the school record book.

In 2018, Mizzou knocked off Florida at home on senior day, the first time the Tigers had beaten the Gators since 2013. The Tigers also pushed eventual SEC Tournament champion LSU to the brink in round one of that event, playing a truly thrilling game that saw the squad fall in the 104th minute on a penalty kick.

Mizzou grabbed a 3-1 win over Alabama in round one of the SEC Tournament in 2017. It was only the program's second SEC Tournament victory ever, and first since 2012. Both Kaitlyn Clark and Luebbert were named to the SEC's second team.

The 2016 squad finished the year with an 11-7-2 record overall and 6-4-1 mark in Southeastern Conference action, and earned the Tigers' most-recent NCAA berth. Luebbert became only the second Tiger in program history to claim conference freshman of the year honors. Melanie Donaldson also was named to the SEC's first team that season.

In 2015, Mizzou finished the season a program-high second in the SEC regular season standings with a 7-2-2 record. Mizzou allowed 17 goals on the season, the fewest in program history, bettering the 19 allowed in 2008. Blitz earned SEC Coach of the Year honors for leading the Tigers to a 9-5-5 season, while three Tigers earned All-SEC honors. Candace Johnson was named to the All-SEC first team while Reagan Russell and Donaldson were both named to the All-SEC second team.

During the 2014 campaign, Blitz led the Tigers to a 12-7-3 record and a 6-4-1 mark in SEC action, including a 7-1-1 record in home contests. Blitz led Mizzou to the NCAA Tournament for the sixth time in program history and advanced to the second round after posting a 3-1 win over Kansas in the opening round.

In 2013, Mizzou knocked off three Top 25 teams, the most since 2008. Missouri recorded its first ranked win with a 1-0 defeat over No. 7 Florida, then handed No. 7 South Carolina only its second loss of the season on Oct. 18 and posted a dramatic 2-1 double-overtime win at No. 25 Kentucky on Oct. 25.

In the program's first season in the Southeastern Conference, Blitz led the Tigers to a 14-7-1 record and their fifth NCAA Tournament berth. The squad's 14 wins tied for the second-most in a single-season. Mizzou also recorded an 8-5 SEC mark and advanced to the semifinals of the SEC Tournament in Orange Beach, Ala.

While in the Big 12, Blitz regularly dominated, winning the Big 12 Tournament in 2008 while winning the conference outright in 2009. Over his 16 seasons in the conference, he compiled 175 total wins.

His best two Big 12 seasons, and maybe in his career, came in 2008 and 2009

In 2008, Blitz directed his team to a 16-5-2 mark, the Big 12 Conference Tournament championship and into the second round of the NCAA Tournament for the second consecutive season. Over the course of the year, Mizzou set school records for wins (16), fewest losses (five), shutouts (12), fewest goals allowed (19) and goals against average (0.80), among others.

In 2009 Missouri reached new highs as the team claimed the Big 12 regular season title for the first time in school history. Blitz was honored as the Big 12 Coach of the Year for his work to mark the second time in his career he earned the honor.

Blitz started coaching at Mizzou in 1996, the program's first season ever. He first got his Tigers into the NCAA Tournament during his fourth season, as the 1999 iteration of the Black & Gold finished 14-8-1 and 6-3-1 in the Big 12. The Tigers fell to Marquette in the longest game in program history, falling 3-2 in quadruple overtime.

Blitz began his head coaching career at Butler University as the program's inaugural head coach in 1991. In his fifth season, he took the Bulldogs from obscurity to the national spotlight in an undefeated run through the Midwestern Collegiate Conference and the team's first national ranking. Blitz earned the 1995 Midwestern Collegiate Conference Coach of the Year award and received an invitation to help coach the U.S. Women's National Team.

Developing Blitz's unique collegiate coaching perspective, he has worked and played in soccer communities around the world improving his knowledge and abilities. Blitz traveled to England to play for one year while he was in college. He returned to the states and to the University of Tulsa, where Blitz helped start the Golden Hurricane women's program as an assistant coach in 1987.

He took two years off from coaching to play in the Southwest Indoor Soccer League and the Northeast Super Soccer League (in Dallas and New York) before a desire to earn a master's degree in business led him to Butler. There, he became a graduate assistant for the men's team and two years later took the reins as a women's head coach for the first time.

Blitz is married to his wife Alie, and has four children: Connor, Abby, Madison and Oliver.

DON TRENTHAM

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH
SIXTH SEASON
COLUMBIA COLLEGE, 1999

Don Trentham enters his sixth season as a member of the Mizzou Soccer coaching staff in 2020, serving as the associate head coach. Trentham's hiring was a homecoming for the O'Fallon, Mo., native and 1999 graduate of Columbia College.

Trentham primarily works with the Tiger defense – a unit that has experienced unprecedented success under his tutelage.

In his first season at Mizzou in 2015, the Tigers set a school record with only 17 goals allowed on the season. The Mizzou backline held opponents to fewer than 10 shots a game, with only 39.2-percent being on goal. The Tigers allowed only 10 goals in 11 SEC games.

Despite playing one of the nation's toughest schedules in 2018, Mizzou posted five shutouts on the year – three in SEC play. Starting goalkeeper Kelsey Dossey ended her career as one of the best to play in the net for Mizzou – finishing the season on the All-SEC second-team.

In 2017, Mizzou posted three shutouts on the season, and the program won it's first SEC Tournament game since 2012 with a 3-1 win over Alabama in the first round.

Mizzou reached the NCAA Tournament in 2016, Trentham's second season on staff. The Tigers posted three shutouts on the season while going 11-7-2 (6-4-1). Midfielder/defender Lauren Seldain was also named second-team All-SEC.

Prior to returning to Mid-Missouri, Trentham spent three seasons as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at Colorado. With the Buffaloes, he helped the program post a record of 36-22-7 and two-straight NCAA Tournament berths during that span.

Trentham spent one season as an assistant at Wyoming in 2011, helping the Cowgirls to a 12-5-4 record and the program's first-ever spot in the Mountain West Conference Tournament championship game.

Trentham enjoyed a nine-year stint (2002-10) as the head coach at Montana State University- Billings, turning around a program that never enjoyed a winning season into a nationally-recognized NCAA Division II program. He finished his career at MSUB as the winningest coach in program history, with a record 85-75-10. In 2010, he was named the Great Northwest Athletic Conference Coach of the Year after guiding MSUB to its first-ever NCAA Tournament bid.

He holds a USSF National Goalkeeping license, a NSCAA Advanced National Diploma and a USSF "A" license.

Trentham earned his bachelor's degree in education from Columbia College in 1999 and a master's degree in education in health and physical education from East Stroudsburg in 2007. He and his wife, the former Jennifer Lawler, have two children, Landon and Adelyn.

MOLLY POLETTO

ASSISTANT COACH
SECOND SEASON
UTAH, 2015

Molly Poletto enters her second season on the Mizzou coaching staff in 2020. She joined the Tigers in the winter of 2019, bringing eight years of coaching experience with her, the previous two at Boston University

Mizzou's goalkeeper coach, Poletto faced the unprecedented challenge in 2019 of starting three separate players in the net due to medical issues. Peyton Bauman, McKenna Sheehan and Gillian Schulte all saw their first minutes of collegiate action on the season, with Schulte — a walk-on, starting the season's final four games.

Poletto helped BU return to the top of the Patriot League in 2018, as the Terriers claimed their fourth Patriot League title and advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the 14th time in program history. BU finished with an 11-7-4 record, including an unbeaten mark in Patriot League play at 7-0-2. Poletto was instrumental in guiding the goalkeeping unit to a combined 11 shutouts in 2018.

In Poletto's first season in 2017, her goalkeepers posted a then-record 10 shutouts as the Terriers finished with a 10-8-3 record and reached the Patriot League Tournament semifinals. Under Poletto's tutelage, BU surrendered just 0.86 goals per game and the goalkeepers combined for a .798 save percentage.

The Englewood, Colo., native worked primarily with the Utes' goalkeepers unit in 2016 as a volunteer assistant coach after spending the previous three years as an undergraduate assistant coach. Following her promotion, the goalkeeping crew improved its goals against average from the 2015 season's 1.21 to a miniscule 0.65, while boasting a .860 save percentage after finishing the previous year at .784. The Utes also totaled 10 clean sheets that season.

Poletto originally joined Utah as a student-athlete in the fall of 2011 but saw her collegiate career cut short by injury, leading her to focus on coaching. Beside assisting the Utes, she has also served as the Director of Goalkeeping and an age group head coach for the Utah Avalanche club team, while also working with the state's ODP program.

She holds a USSF "B" license and serves as an instructor for the USSF "E" licenses. After graduating cum laude from the University of Utah in 2015 with a degree in communications and a minor in psychology, she completed her Master's degree in sports psychology in the spring of 2017.

Poletto owns a six-year old border collie-lab mix, Callie.

NCAA SOCCER

- Missouri has made the NCAA Tournament field seven times in its history, with berths in 1999, 2003, 2007, 2008, 2012, 2014 and 2016.
- Eight of Missouri's 10 NCAA games have been played at the team's home field of Walton Stadium.
- Mizzou did not play an NCAA Tournament match away from Walton Stadium until 2014.
- Mizzou's first-ever NCAA game, a 3-2 four overtime loss to Marquette in the 1999 first round, stands as Missouri's longest-ever match. The game went 142 minutes.
- Three of Missouri's NCAA games have gone to penalty kicks following two overtime sessions.
- Seven different Tigers have scored in NCAA Tournament games: Michelle Collins, Taylor Grant, Kristen Heil, Danielle Nottingham, Candace Ruff, Reagan Russell, Mallory Stipetich and Nikki Thole.
- Collins, Grant and Thole scored two goals in NCAA games. Both of Thole's came against Marquette in 1999, Collins scored one against SEMO in 2007 and the other against Evansville in 2008, and Grant tallied two against Kansas in 2014.

Nov. 10, 1999 • Columbia, Mo.

Marquette 3, Missouri 2 (4OT)

COLUMBIA, Mo. - The University of Missouri women's soccer team was defeated Wednesday, Nov. 10, in the first round of the 1999 NCAA Tournament by Marquette, 3-2 in four overtimes. The match, which was the longest in both programs' history, was decided in the 142nd minute when Marquette's Amy Hnatow scored her first career goal.

After 35 minutes of scoreless play, Marquette got on the board with a score from Kate Gordon, her ninth goal of the season. The score stayed 1-0 at halftime before Marquette added its second goal in the 54th minute. Erin Morgan netted her eighth of the season on a pass from Lannette Rossini and Marquette led the Tigers 2-0.

Just over two minutes later, Nikki Thole put MU on the scoreboard when she knocked home a goalie deflection with a soft header. Thole's 22nd goal of the season got Missouri back in the match and reenergized the Tigers.

After she was hauled down in the penalty box, Thole scored the equalizer on a penalty kick that beat Marquette's goalkeeper low right. From that point on, nearly a full match was played before the next goal was scored.

Three full overtimes, and most of the day's sunlight, came and went with the team's trading opportunities in the extra periods. At 141:13, Hnatow placed a shot over Missouri goalkeeper Jackie Adamec's head from the right side and Marquette had the victory.

Nov. 14, 2003 • Columbia, Mo.

Missouri 1, Eastern Illinois 0

COLUMBIA, Mo. - Appearing in their first NCAA Tournament match in four years, the Tigers continued their hard fought postseason rally defeating Eastern Illinois, 1-0. The victory marked Mizzou's first NCAA Tournament win in program history.

After a lackluster first half, Mizzou didn't waste any time shining up the scoreboard during the second period. Just three minutes into play, Kristen Heil put Mizzou up 1-0 scoring her 10th goal of the season.

Preparing the scoring play deep in the midfield, forward Melissa Peabody sliced a pass to Adriene Davis in the midfield circle, who then played a perfect pass to Heil at the top of the penalty box. Heil then bested two EIU defenders and keeper Tiffany Groene to deliver the game-winner.

NCAA Tournament Second Round
Nov. 16, 2003 • Columbia, Mo.

Kansas 2, Missouri 0

COLUMBIA, Mo. - Riding through a roller coaster season, the Missouri soccer team ended the 2003 campaign with loss in the second round of the NCAA Tournament to No. 16 Kansas, 2-0.

Backed by solid defensive play, Mizzou's offensive squad was able to concentrate its efforts on the KU net. Jennifer Nobis pulled out an exhilarating break away, but lost the ball to an aggressive play by Jayhawk keeper Meghan Miller.

Mizzou's defensive squad continued its valiant efforts, thwarting Kansas in the backfield. Unable to best the Tigers one-on-one, the Jayhawk offense finally found fruition in one of their nine cornerkicks. Lobbing a ball into the penalty box, the two teams batted the ball through the arcade of bodies until Smith caught a sharp foot on the ball and sailed it over the goal line.

Down 1-0 with just 13 minutes ticking on the clock, Missouri frantically tried to even out the score. Despite several extraordinary attempts by Davis, the Tigers struggled to come back. The frenzy opened up KU's second scoring play that dropped MU with a 2-0 deficit with just two minutes left to play. Kimberly Karfonta lofted a ball from midfield to Carmel Kaplinger who dribbled the ball to score.

Nov. 16, 2007 • Columbia, Mo.

Missouri 1, SEMO 1 (2-0 PK)

COLUMBIA, Mo. - The 23rd-ranked Missouri soccer team tied Southeast Missouri State (SEMO), 1-1, with the Tigers advancing to the second round of the NCAA Tournament on penalty kicks. The Tigers and Redhawks were scoreless through 67:36 of action before the game was decided, 2-0, on junior Kat Tarr and junior goalkeeper Mallory Forst's shootout shots.

Sophomore Michelle Collins came up with Missouri's first goal of the night, dribbling the ball in from the top of the box. Shooting from eight yards out, Collins beat the keeper to the right, scoring 16:26 into the game. The goal was Collins' 12th of the year.

After SEMO tied the game and a scoreless overtime session, five Tigers were selected from the lineup to take Missouri's penalty shots. Tarr made Missouri's first penalty kick attempt but SEMO missed all four of theirs before Forst stepped up and hit her shot to advance the Tigers to the second round.

USC 1, Missouri 0

COLUMBIA, Mo. - The eighth-ranked USC Trojans (16-3-2) defeated the 23rd-ranked Missouri Tigers (13-8-1), 1-0, in the second round of the NCAA Tournament in Columbia, Mo.

USC scored the game-winning goal on a header from less than five yards out by midfielder Ashley Nick with 5:12 remaining in the second overtime period. USC midfielder Megan Ohai tallied the assist off a throw-in.

The first half ended scoreless, with Missouri out-shooting the Trojans, 5-3. Missouri's best scoring chance came just four minutes into the game. Alysha Bonnick delivered two shots from inside the box, both saved by USC goalkeeper Kristin Olsen.

USC dominated the first overtime, out-shooting the Tigers, 5-2. Five minutes into overtime USC's Amy Rodriguez ripped a shot from just inside the box that was saved by keeper Mallory Forst. Missouri's only scoring chance came with 18 seconds left when Michelle Collins took a pass from midfielder Mo Redmond and had a break away. After a shifty move, Collins fired a shot to the near post from six yards out but the USC goalie smothered the shot.

Nov. 14, 2008 • Columbia, Mo.

Missouri 2, Evansville 0

COLUMBIA, Mo. - Michelle Collins and Candace Ruff each scored a goal in the first half to give Missouri a first-round NCAA Tournament victory over Evansville, 2-0. With rain falling on the field and 14 mph winds coming from the Northwest, the Missouri women decided to waste no time in securing their spot in the regional championship game.

Michelle Collins started things early for Mizzou as she took a pass from Crystal Wagner and sent a shot past Evansville goalkeeper Theresa Bagby in the third minute of play. The goal marked Collins seventh on the season and gave the Tigers a 1-0 lead. The Aces weren't able to keep Mizzou quiet. Just thirty minutes after Collins' goal Ashley Hamblin passed one to Candace Ruff for the Tiger's second score of the game and Ruff's second career goal. Missouri recorded 16 shots in the first period while Evansville attempted just one.

Nov. 16, 2008 • Columbia, Mo.

Illinois 1, Missouri 1 (4-3 PK)

COLUMBIA, Mo. - Missouri ended its season in a penalty kick shootout to the Illinois Fighting Illini, 4-3, after a 1-1 game after two overtimes in the second round of the NCAA Tournament.

Freshman Kelsey Blincow, sophomore Alysha Bonnick and junior Bree Thornton all converted their penalty kicks against Illinois goalkeeper Alexandra Kapicka. The Illini made their fourth of five attempts and Kapicka made a save on senior Mallory Forst's shot to send Illinois to the sweet sixteen. Illinois dominated early play in the second half and the Illini went up 1-0 in the 56th minute when Jackie Santacaterina flicked a ball up to Chichi Nweke. The forward fired a 14-yard shot past Dittamore and into the lower far post. Missouri responded in the 74th minute when junior Michelle Collins played a ball up to sophomore Alysha Bonnick, who sent a pass to a wide open Mallory Stipetich. The freshman one-timed a 15-yard shot to the left of Kapicka and into the net for a 1-1 game. Regulation and overtime ended with both teams tied at 1-1 so the contest went to a shootout.

Nov. 11, 2012 • Columbia, Mo.

Illinois 1, Missouri 1 (3-0 PK)

COLUMBIA, Mo. - Following a 1-1 game after 110 minutes of play between Mizzou and Illinois in the first round of the NCAA Tournament, the contest went to a penalty kick shootout, where Illinois advanced. The Tigers outshot the Fighting Illini 28-19 in the contest but had numerous shots hit off the post.

The Tigers could not convert on their first three penalty kicks, while the Fighting Illini made their first three attempts to advance. Illinois went up 1-0 in the 19th minute but Missouri battled back and used a goal from junior Danielle Nottingham to knot the score at 1-1 in the 53rd minute. Redshirt-freshman Lauren Flynn played a ball across the field to Nottingham, who was stationed outside the left corner of the box. Nottingham ripped a 20-yarder that sailed past Illinois' goalie and into the upper left netting. The tally was Nottingham's first of the season and ninth of her career. Flynn earned her first career assist on the play.

Mizzou sent a flurry of six shots toward the goal in the final nine minutes of regulation but could not take the lead. With just seconds remaining in the second half Grant blasted a shot but it flew just wide left of the goal. Following a scoreless first overtime session, the Tigers again seemed likely to score in the second overtime. The home team managed to earn three corner kicks and got off three shots but again could not score to send the contest to a penalty kick shootout.

NCAA Tournament First Round
Nov. 16, 2014 • Lawrence, Kan.

Missouri 3, Kansas 1

LAWRENCE, Kan. - Senior Taylor Grant tallied two goals and junior Reagan Russell added another as the Mizzou soccer team advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament with a 3-1 win over Kansas in Lawrence, Kan. The Tigers improved to 12-6-3 on the season, while the Jayhawks ended the year with a 15-6 record.

Missouri was on the attack from the first whistle and wasted no time scoring the first goal of the match. Junior Reagan Russell sent a long cross from the right side of the field to the far post. Grant, stationed near the post, chested the ball down into the net from a yard out for a 1-0 Tiger advantage.

Grant struck again early in the second half for a 2-0 Mizzou advantage in the 51st minute. Senior Kaysie Clark played up a perfect pass to Grant, who ran onto the ball at the top of the box. The Kansas keeper came off her line but Grant took a touch and sent a low shot past the goalkeeper and into the lower left netting for her team leading ninth goal of the season. A goal from the Jayhawks in the 57th minute cut Mizzou's lead to 2-1 to give Kansas some hope. In the 66th minute, Russell ran down the right sideline, ran into the box and slotted a low shot from 10-yards out into the far post for a 3-1 Missouri lead.

Nov. 21, 2014 • Stanford, Calif.

Washington 1, Missouri 0 (OT)

STANFORD, Calif. - No. 24 Washington scored 1:03 into overtime to end the Mizzou soccer team's NCAA Tournament run with a 1-0 loss to the Huskies in the second round at Stanford, Calif. The Tigers and Huskies played 91 minutes of scoreless soccer before Washington ended Mizzou's season in extra time.

Early in the first overtime session, Washington's Kimberly Keever made a run down the left flank, cut into the box and unleashed a right-footed attempt toward goal. The shot flew over redshirt senior keeper McKenzie Sauerwein's arms and into the right side netting for the winner. The Huskies had a 17-10 edges in shots, although second half saw both squads send five attempts on net.

Nov. 13, 2016 • Lawrence, Kan.

Kansas 1, Missouri 0 (OT)

LAWRENCE, Kan. – Kansas scored 40 seconds into the second overtime session to earn a 1-0 win over the Mizzou soccer team in the first round of the NCAA Tournament at Lawrence, Kan. The game was close throughout but the Jayhawks struck on a close-range shot to end the Tigers' season.

After 100 minutes of scoreless soccer, the Jayhawks used a five-yard strike from Lois Heuchan only 40 seconds into the double overtime to give the home team the win. The ball was crossed across the goal to Heuchan, who calmly beat Mizzou sophomore keeper Kelsey Dossey to the right netting.

The contest was evenly matched, with Kansas owning a 17-14 edge in shots and both teams committing eight fouls. The Tigers did have a 12-6 advantage in corner kicks, including a 10-3 lead in the second half and overtime.

Freshman forward Sarah Luebbert nearly put Mizzou up in the third minute when she received the ball at midfield and raced toward goal. However, the freshman's final touch was a bit heavy and the Kansas keeper came off her line to block Luebbert's 12-yard shot.

The Tigers' best chance of the day came from the foot of senior defender Erin Webb in the 81st minute. She dribbled into the box and unleashed a left-footed strike that sailed inches over the crossbar.

RECORD: 7-10-1 • SEC RECORD: 1-8-1

Mizzou saw an improvement in their offensive production, jumping to a 5-0 start on the season — its best start since 2012 . . . come SEC play, the Tigers were forced to go deep down their bench at goalkeeper, starting walk-on Gillian Schulte in the final four games of the season following medical issues to starters Peyton Bauman and McKenna Sheehan . . . Mizzou ended the season on a 2-10-1 streak to miss the SEC Tournament for the first time in program history . . . Sarah Luebbert ended her career ranking in the Top 10 in most statistical categories, and was named to the All-SEC first team, as well as SEC Co-Scholar Athlete of the Year.

"To recognize and honor those individuals who have made exceptional contributions to the achievements and prestige of the University of Missouri in the field of athletics, and who have continued to demonstrate in their lives, the values imparted by intercollegiate athletics."

The University of Missouri Intercollegiate Athletics Hall of Fame was made possible by the 1989 bequest of $100,000 from the estate of the late A.C. (Ace) and Mary Stotler. It is located in the lobby of the main entrance to Mizzou Arena, after being housed in the Hearnes Center until the fall of 2004. The first class was enshrined in 1990, in conjunction with Mizzou's observance of its 100th football season.

Induction into the Hall of Fame is the highest honor bestowed upon a Mizzou student-athlete, coach or administrator. The general public is invited to submit nominations by filling out the online form at www.MUTigers.com. For more information, please contact Nick Joos, Deputy AD-Strategic Communications, University of Missouri, P.O. Box 677, Columbia, MO 65205.
